

CONTENTS

- Bona F. & Savoldi M. – *The first record of birch mouse Sicista in the Upper Pleistocene sediments of Caverna Generosa (Como, Italy), with morphometrical, morphological and ecological considerations* (p. 1).
- Cirilli O., Benvenuti M.G., Carnevale G., Casanovas Vilar I., Delfino M., Furió M., Papini M., Villa A. & Rook L. – Fosso della Fittaia: the oldest Tusco-Sardinian late Miocene endemic vertebrate assemblages (Baccinello-Cinigiano Basin, Tuscany, Italy) (p. 13).
- Collareta A., Bosselaers M. & Bianucci G. – Jumping from turtles to whales: a Pliocene fossil record depicts an ancient dispersal of Chelonibia on mysticetes (p. 35).
- Rodríguez-Tovar F.J., Pardo-Igúzquiza E., Reolid M. & Bartolini A. – Spectral analysis of toarcian sediments from the Valdorbia section (Umbria-Marche Apennines): the astronomical input in the foraminiferal record (p. 45).
- Gaetani M. – Brachiopods from the type-section of the Bithynian substage (Anisian, Middle Triassic, Northwestern Turkey) (p. 61).
- Chiocchini M. & Pichezzi R.M. – Cairoella tricamerata n. gen., n. sp. (Foraminiferida, Milioloidea) from the lower Cenomanian of Monte Cairo (Southern Latium, Central Italy) (p. 77).
- Posenato R. – Systematics of lingulide brachiopods from the end-Permian mass extinction interval (p. 85).
- Robba E., Pedriali L. & Quaggiotto E. – Eocene, Oligocene and Miocene naticid gastropods of Northern Italy (p. 109).
- Bagnoli G., Machado G. & Marjibi S. – The first record of Cambrian conodonts from the Huqf-Haushi outcrops, Oman, Arabian Peninsula (p. 235).