

Antropologia, nuova serie – Vol. 6, N.2, 2019

Special Focus. Kinning and De-Kinning: Rethinking Kinship and Relatedness from its Edges (edited by Alice Sophie Sarcinelli and Corinna Sabrina Guerzoni)

Corinna Sabrina Guerzoni, Alice Sophie Sarcinelli – What Is Kinning All About?

Agnès Martial – Multi-parenthood and contemporary family forms in French studies

Simonetta Grilli – Making Bodies, Making Relatives. Family Resemblances and Relatedness in the Age of Assisted Reproductive Technologies

Anaïs Martin – “Who do I look like?”: Kinning and resemblance in the experience of French donor conceived adults

Alice Sophie Sarcinelli, Charlotte Simon – “With your head held high”: Italian and Belgian lesbian-parented families’ claims and strategies to obtain kinning rights

Zsuzsa Berend and Corinna Sabrina Guerzoni – Reshaping Relatedness? The case of US Surrogacy

Rosa Parisi – New “racialised” geographies of kinship. Kinning in Mixed families

Articoli

Alessandro Gusman – La deliverance come tecnica di contrasto all’“insicurezza spirituale”. Il caso della Mutundwe Christian Fellowship di Kampala

Veronica Redini – Fabule e Trame. Una prospettiva etnografica su lavoro e movimento nella produzione globale

Francesco Vietti – Aspettando Teaching Cultures. Prospettive pedagogiche e pratiche didattiche per un’antropologia come esperienza

Recensioni

RIFERIMENTI BIBLIOGRAFICI

ISSN: 2281-4043

Prezzo cartaceo: 25,00 €

Il volume è disponibile presso www.ledizioni.it e in tutte le librerie fisiche ed online